Unit 1 Lookback — explained answers

Source: the first PDF page of ../unit-02/source/unit-02-and-unit-01-lookback.pdf, printed page 18. This page completes Unit 1. Answers below follow the printed exercise numbers.

1 · Phrases with name

1. clear his name — prove that he is innocent.
2. named after my grandfather — named after means given someone's name.
3. maiden name — the surname she used before marriage.
4. made a name for herself — herself refers back to Zara; the expression means became well known.
5. household name — someone widely known by the public.
6. nickname — an informal name used instead of the person's real name.

2A · Simple and continuous forms

1. a) is coming to visit — an arranged future visit; b) comes from Osaka — a fact about origin.
2. a) have had ten days off — a period continuing to now; b) have been having tennis lessons — repeated activity continuing over two years.
3. a) was being painted — passive work in progress yesterday; b) was beautiful — a past description using the same verb, be.
4. a) don't get homesick — a general characteristic; b) isn't getting any better — an ongoing change that is not happening.
5. a) had worked for that company before — earlier past experience; b) had been working for sixteen hours — duration explains the exhaustion.

2B: The simple form presents facts, states, experiences or completed periods. The continuous form emphasizes an arrangement, an activity in progress or its duration.

3A · Describing habits

1. I'm prone to leaving things until the last minute. — Prone to takes a noun or -ing form.
2. I don't tend to need as much sleep as I used to. — Tend takes a to-infinitive.
3. I keep forgetting her birthday. — Keep takes -ing for repeated behavior.
4. My parents wouldn't let me out late at night. — Wouldn't is followed by the base verb without to.
5. I'm more inclined to call people than to send them a text. — Inclined is an adjective; inclination is a noun.
6. I'm always cleaning my house. — Am always needs an -ing verb and can emphasize a repeated habit.

3B, model: “I tend to plan my work carefully. I'm prone to spending too long at my computer, so I'm trying to take more breaks.” Personal answers vary.

4A · Personality

1. mature — able to disagree respectfully.
2. perceptive — notices something another person missed.
3. obstinate — refuses to change his mind or cooperate.
4. conscientious — prepares carefully and takes responsibility.
5. open-minded — considers different possibilities.

6. inquisitive — asks questions because of curiosity.

4B, model: “I prepare detailed notes before a meeting and check my work carefully.” The partner should guess conscientious.

5A · Speculating

1–c, 2–e, 3–f, 4–d, 5–b, 6–g, 7–a, 8–h. Each pair makes a grammatical expression for an uncertain opinion:

1. I imagine Guido's probably obsessive about keeping his house clean. (c)
2. If I had to make a guess, I'd say that Monika is a conscientious student. (e)
3. I wonder if Alex has a solitary side to his nature. (f)
4. She gives the impression of being a little apathetic about politics. (d)
5. I'd guess that Felix has a tendency to be a little absent-minded. (b)
6. There's something mysterious about Martha. (g)
7. It looks to me as if Nataly has an artistic streak. (a)
8. I'm pretty sure that Olga is a fitness fanatic. (h)

5B, model: “I imagine technology will keep changing quickly. If I had to make a guess, I'd say more people will study online next year.” These are predictions, not factual answers.